BEST PRACTICES

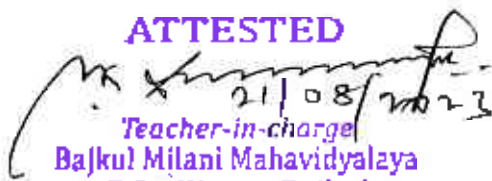

Our college have been practicing two activities in its best. One is Financial aid for meritorious/needly students and the other is Community service through NSS, NCC.

Best practice – 1: Title of practice: Financial aid for meritorious/needly students

Objective: (a) Financially support to meritorious/needly students (b) Encouraging in persuasion of higher education.

Practice: (a) On the basis of application with income certificate fees concession is provided. (b) HODs are asked to recommend one poor but meritorious student who will get financial support. (c) Best performers are provided various awards from sixteen major funds. (d) Due to COVID, many families lost job so college authority decided to reduce course fees of students by Rs. 1000/.

Relevant Extract of Resolution of the Governing Body of Bajkul Milani Mahavidyalaya in it's Meeting held on 05.03.2021

Item No. : 07

TIC apprise the GB that due to COVID-19 pandemic situation our society has been affected adversely in economic situation. Many students of our college are from financially weak families. Tie appealed to GB to consider the financial relaxations which are we already provided to the students.

After careful discussion, GB approved the decision which already taken by the college authority for the academic session 2020-21 and also approved the fees structure of this session post facto and also decided that we can support our students subjects to relaxation in fees in future depends on the conditions of calamities. In this regards Teacher-in-charge be requested to do the needful.
